"Great performances and compelling drama rule the day in this sensual tale of reunited lovers and forbidden temptations," said Mile High Media Vice President Jon Blitt. "Dana does a remarkable job capturing the energy and passion of her talented cast that perfectly portrays these unique characters."

"Adoration" tells the story of businesswoman Cherie DeVille who reunites with her former lover Dana, after almost a decade, and a lot has changed. Both women now have teenage daughters and both have gone on to have successful careers. But, while both women attempt to pick up where they left off, the problems that they struggled with in the past resurface, only now their daughters realize that they have a stake in their mothers' relationship as well. Cherie's daughter Ivy is a wide-eyed bohemian who admires Dana's artwork, while Dana's daughter Isabella resents what she perceives as her mother's feigned free-spiritedness and empathizes with what Cherie has endured. Will Cherie and Dana find a way to stay together, or will their daughters pull them apart forever?
