Art Koch of Nightmoves Magazine praises "Talk Derby To Me" saying, "This is action packed in more ways than one and has awards written all over it...The combination of Joanna and Stoya is one of those magical connections that really pulls this film together...The entire cast brings their 'A' game showcasing a variety of talents that make Talk Derby To Me a must see film."

The high praise continues from XCritic's Don Juan DeMarko, commenting, "Thank you [Sweetheart Video] for putting out such quality in the industry. The fan giveaways, the posters, the helmets, the graphics and wardrobe...this was true cinema and I loved every second of it. Bravo...one of the most amazing films of the year."

DeMarko continues, "This film brings together so much. Ink, skating, Goth darkness, old school nostalgia. I think so many will have so much fun with this film. I think there are just too many good things to pass up this film. It offers you a glimpse into another world. A world I think that the industry can continue to grow with ideas like this. When you make films that actors like Gia Page, Katrina Jade, Stoya and Joanna Angel all can shine in terms of story, you can not loose."

"Talk Derby To Me," is the story of Allison Decker (Joanna Angel) and Suzy Weston (Stoya), who are known as infernal duo Bruiser and Crusher, who used to rule the track and dominated the roller derby world until their relationship ended with Suzy's injury and Allison moving to New York. Years later, Suzy is the coach of the Los Angeles Pussy Posse and Allison has just reappeared, hoping Suzy will forgive her and let her return where everything started, in LA with the Pussy Posse. Follow the private lives, dramas, and quirky personalities of the ladies of the Los Angeles Pussy Posse as they battle jealousy, competition and the need for some serious action on and off the track.

Helmed by directing sensation Ricky Greenwood, "Talk Derby To Me" marks his third adult film after the success of his two blockbuster films, "Confession Of A Sinful Nun" and "Becoming Elsa," which received critical acclaim, multiple award nominations and record sales.

"Ricky brings an amazing realism and nostalgic 80s energy to the film that makes it truly unique. With the talented Joanna Angel and Stoya in their first lesbian scene as a raw and intimate centerpiece, this film is already breaking sales projections and grabbing major critical acclaim," said Mile High Media Vice President Jon Blitt. "With his amazing cast, Ricky paints a colorful picture of 80s roller derby team full of passion and erotic drama that plays out with great realism and sensuality that bursts from the screen."

About Mile High Media:

Mile High Media has been a pillar of the adult industry for over 25 years. The Canadian managed company began as a Canadian licensee for American adult movies, ensuring it distributed only the highest quality content. Understanding the diverse and ever changing needs of its consumer base, Mile High determined the best way to provide a wide array of superior entertainment was to produce its own. In 2003, Mile High launched Doghouse Digital, the first of its acclaimed lines catering to specific niches. Growing market trends and demand led Mile High to create Sweetheart Video (lesbian line), Sweet Sinner (couple line), Reality Junkies (reality gonzo line), Male Reality (gay reality gonzo line), Icon Male (Gay romance line), TransSensual (TS erotica line) and recently launched Cherry Pop Films (teen gonzo line). With over 2500 titles, Mile High's studios yield some of the most viewed adult movies in the world, available on all platforms, including broadcast, IPTV, VOD and mobile applications. Mile High is committed to evolve alongside consumers tastes, reflecting new developments in technology and entertainment. This philosophy led AEBN.net to name Mile High the 2012 Studio of the Year. For more information, visit www.MileHighOnline.com, www.Facebook.com/MileHighMedia or www.Twitter.com/MileHighMovies.
