Written and directed by Ricky Greenwood, "Confessions Of A Sinful Nun 2: The Rise Of Sister Mona" continues the taboo story from the 2017 blockbuster starring 2019 AVN All-Girl Performer of the Year Charlotte Stokely as a wayward nun exploring her sexuality. "We are pleased to give fans a sneak peek at the movie's new poster," said Mile High Media Vice President Jon Blitt. "After the blockbuster original film, fans have been patiently waiting for its sequel and so we wanted give them a taste of this compelling new film that continues the forbidden tale of lustful nuns."

The cast features Stokely who reprises her role as Sister Charlotte, Wales in the title role of Sister Mona and adult icon Nina Hartley who returns as Mother Superior. Rounding out the cast are Magdalene St. Michaels, Kenna James, Lena Paul, Cassidy Banks and Serene Siren.

"I am excited to return to the sensual world of passionate nuns who are torn by their commitment to their vows and the pull of the flesh," said Greenwood, who also directed the original film. "Fans will see a different dynamic from the earlier film as we delve into Sister Mona's temptations and follow the impact she makes on the convent's unique culture where hidden passion and religious devotion collide. I'm really proud of this second film and know fans will love the dark, sexy and sometimes sinister story as we continue Mona's transformation."
